

APPLICATION FOR THE SYDNEY BRENNER RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

Application Checklist and Instructions

QUALIFICATIONS

The selection of the Sydney Brenner Research Scholar is based on CSHL's determination of:

- Quality of the research proposal (importance of topic, originality and sophistication of approach, and feasibility of research objectives)
- Relevance of the research proposal to the materials held in the Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Archival Collections
- Evidence of the applicant's ability to carry out the proposed research project (as outlined in at least two letters of reference, reviews of previous work, publication record, etc.)

CONDITIONS

In submitting an application for the Sydney Brenner Research Scholarship, the applicant does not incur any obligation to accept the award if selected.

1. Scholars are obligated to travel to Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory and do their research using the Library and Archives collections.
2. Scholars are expected to present the results of their research in a talk, at a meeting, on a website, or in some other educational endeavor to the educational community at Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory.
3. A copy of the final research report (in the format of a scholarly book, article, or other project) is to be donated to the Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory Library and Archives to be placed in its collection.
4. The stipend of $6,000 - $10,000 is to cover expenses incurred for travel, transportation and subsistence while doing research using the Cold Spring Harbor Laboratory library and archives resources. Additional costs that may apply might be recording oral history interviews, microfilming archival materials, or completing other tasks involved in meeting the requirements of the scholarship.

SELECTION PROCESS

Proposals will be reviewed by the CSHL Archives Committee and a Fellow will be chosen each year. Selection of the Sydney Brenner scholar will be made at the sole discretion of CSHL.
